In 1973 an innovative group of court managers joined together and created a forum where they could discuss, share and exchange ideas related to the concept of court administration and they named this forum the Ohio Association for Court Administration (OACA). Over time court administration has matured into the profession we all share and as we enter our 44th year, OACA stands as the premiere professional organization for court managers in Ohio.

I would like to extend an invitation to renew your membership or become a new member of the Ohio Association for Court Administration for 2017.
